

I am very worried that my privacy protection rights may be weakened.
I very much want to keep our telephone privacy protection law. It has made our family's dinner time so much more enjoyable without the constant interruption.
Please do not implement any proposal that will weaken Indiana's telephone privacy protection.